

Fact Sheet – Jamie Thompson

Music Style : Electric folk rock with jazz and pop influences. (Taxi music)

Hometown : Harleysville, PA

Current CD : “It’s Been So Long”

Performers/Instruments

Jamie Thompson : songwriter, producer, guitars, vocals, keyboards, percussion

Judy Thompson : producer, vocals

Dan Kelly : bass

Dennis Law : drums

Roger Schultz : bass

Scott Gurney : keyboard

Verna Law : backing vocals

Ron Karp : drums

Ken Volz : vocals

Jay Kratz : keyboard, vocals

David Young : handclaps

Mark Appiotti : flugelhorn

Jack Otto : congas

Dave Detwiler : vocals

Points of note : Jamie Thompson has been writing and performing music for over thirty years. Jamie performed original music at 6 Flags Great Adventure Theme Park for the Rejoice Celebration weekend September 1, 2002.

Jamie scored a video called “Let’s Pray Let’s Roll” that honored the memory of 9/11 hero Todd Beamer. Jamie also wrote and recorded an original music score for the 9/11 video “Lost in New York” that was distributed nationally.

Jamie was the featured artist of the week on WZZD 990 AM and Word FM 89.9 in Philadelphia.

Music from the song "It's Been So Long" was selected as the theme song and bumper tracks for a Philadelphia based radio talk show called "House Mechanic" on WFIL 560 AM. The show is aired every Saturday morning at 8:00 AM.

Jamie plays guitar and writes “special music” for regular services at Branch Creek Community Church in Harleysville, PA.

Contact : jamiethompson.net

143 Surrey Lane

Harleysville, PA 19438-1805 USA

Phone: 215.513.9799

email: Jamie@jamiethompson.net